

Summer 2017 Internship Overview:

Aloha Tournaments is looking for smart, motivated and career-minded undergraduate students to provide operational and administrative support for our busiest Summer season yet! Our 2017 tournament season will consist of 20 different lacrosse events throughout the United States, including the World Series of Youth Lacrosse championship which is played in an NFL stadium and broadcast live on ESPN2. Our events annually attract 50,000 players and their families to participate in an unparalleled youth sports experience. Aloha Tournaments hosts some of the largest, most well run youth sports events in the nation. Learn more about us at www.alohatournaments.com and www.worldseriesofyouthlacrosse.com.

Interns will be provided with formal, hands-on training in the functional areas of sports administration, event operations and communications. This is a great internship for a Sports Management, Events/Hospitality, Business, or Communications/Marketing majors. Interns will be eligible to receive college course credit. Select underclassmen (rising sophomores and juniors) may be offered a returning internship position for the following summer, where they can expect to take on greater responsibilities. Upperclassmen (rising seniors) will be eligible to receive an offer for full-time employment following college graduation.

Compensation and Commitment:

This is a 12 week, full time, paid internship available for qualified undergraduate students able to relocate and live in the Baltimore metro area for the Summer.

- Schedule: Interns will be expected to begin their internship as early in May as their Spring exam schedule allows in order get fully prepared and trained before the start of the tournament season. In addition, interns should be prepared to work 6+ weekends throughout the course of the 12-week internship. On weekdays, interns will work between 30-40 hours per week and will be given off days throughout the summer, typically after the weekend of an event.
- Out of town Students: Aloha will arrange and pay for local college dormitory housing (including a meal plan or weekly meal stipend) for those students relocating to Baltimore.
- In-town Students: Interns that have permanent residence in the Baltimore area can opt out of the housing arrangement and will be paid $3,000 over the course of their internship (bi-weekly).
- Students participating in the internship program will be eligible to receive course credit if approved by your school.
